This usage data forms the basis for statistical, anonymous analyses, so that trends become can be detected by means of which we can accordingly improve our offers.

Data privacy statement for the use of Facebook plugins ("Like" button)

The plugins of the social network Facebook, 1601 South California Avenue, Palo Alto, CA 94304, USA are integrated in our pages. You can recognise the Facebook plugins by the Facebook logo or the "like" button on our pages. You can find an overview of the Facebook plugins here: <http://developers.facebook.com/docs/plugins/>.

When you visit our pages, the plug-in establishes a direct connection between your browser and the Facebook server. Facebook thereby receives the information that you have visited our site from your IP address. If you click the Facebook "like" button while you are logged into your Facebook account, you can link the contents of our pages to your Facebook profile. This way, Facebook can attribute the visit on our pages to your user account. We point out that we, as the provider of the pages do not receive any notice of the content of transmitted data and neither of their use by Facebook. You can find more information about this in the data privacy statement of Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/about/privacy/>

If you do not wish that Facebook can attribute the visit to your Facebook user account, please log out of your Facebook user account.

Data Privacy Statement for the Use of Twitter

Features of the Twitter service are integrated on our pages. These features are provided by Twitter Inc., 795 Folsom St., Suite 600, San Francisco, CA 94107, USA. By using Twitter and the "re-tweet" feature, the websites visited by you will be linked to your Twitter account and disclosed to other users. In the process, also data such as the IP address, browser type, called-up domains, visited sites, mobile phone provider, device and application IDs and search terms are transmitted to Twitter.

We point out that we, as the provider of the pages do not receive any notice of the content of transmitted data and neither of their use by Twitter. Due to the continuous updating of Twitter's data privacy policy, we refer to the most recent version at (<http://twitter.com/privacy>).

You can change your data privacy settings in your Twitter account settings at <http://twitter.com/account/settings>. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact nt@tonality.at.
